

Spanish

WASHINGTON
& JEFFERSON
COLLEGE

The Spanish program of the Department of Modern Languages provides students with opportunities to develop the skills, knowledge, and qualities necessary to communicate and interact in Spanish-speaking cultures and communities around the world. Spanish is the fourth most spoken language in the world and is the official language of 20 countries and Puerto Rico. Courses range in level and topic from language and grammar to literature and film, and the major can be tailored to the cultural and career interests of the student.

Major Requirements

Depending on course placement*, students will take the following courses:

- Beginner Spanish I and II (SPN 105 & 106)
- Intermediate Spanish I and II (SPN 207 & 208)
- Advanced Spanish I and II (SPN 309 & 310)
- One elective at the 300- or 400-level (Excluding Advanced Spanish I and II [SPN 309 & 310])
- Three 400-level literature and culture courses
- A study abroad/cultural immersion experience is highly encouraged and recommended
- Capstone project (In consultation with the major advisor and the program director)

[Teacher Certification for Spanish is available at W&J through the Education department.]

*our major is based on language proficiency: all students begin with placement into a course appropriate for their previous knowledge of Spanish. The placement will determine their first course in the sequence.

Minor Requirements

Depending on course placement*, students will take the following courses:

- Beginner Spanish I and II (SPN 105 & 106)
- Intermediate Spanish I and II (SPN 207 & 208)
- Advanced Spanish I and II (SPN 309 & 310)
- One 400-level literature or culture course

[Students who start at Advanced Spanish I (SPN 309) are not eligible to complete a minor.]

*our minor is based on language proficiency: all students begin with placement into a course appropriate for their previous knowledge of Spanish. The placement will determine their first course in the sequence.

Department Chair

Katherine Ternes, Ph.D.
kternes@washjeff.edu

Program Director

Amparo Alpañés, Ph.D.
aalpanes@washjeff.edu

Faculty

Jessica Craft, M.A.
jcraft@washjeff.edu

H.J. Manzari, Ph.D.
hjmanzari@washjeff.edu

Maribel Manzari, M.Ed.
mmanzari@washjeff.edu

Christy Shaughnessy, Ph.D.
cshaughnessy@washjeff.edu

Beyond the Classroom

Students in Spanish have a wide array of opportunities for Spanish-oriented research, internships, conferences, and networking beyond the classroom that give them an advantage to prepare for life after W&J. Their academic achievements can help them join the academic honor society Sigma Delta Pi or be awarded one of the two yearly departmental prizes: The Richard S. Pett Academic Travel Award in languages or The J. Adolph Schmitz Prize in Language.

Travel Abroad & Internships

- Semester-long stays in Spanish-speaking countries (Ecuador, Costa Rica, Uruguay, and Spain).
- Summer Magellan Projects and study abroad in Spanish-speaking countries (any Spanish-speaking country of your choice).
- Two-week travel courses led by W&J faculty with other W&J students to Spanish-speaking countries. Destinations vary.
- Semester or year-long internship at St. Oscar Romero Parish.
- Summer local or international internships available.

Benefits of a Spanish Major/Minor for Future Employment*

- Spanish is the most in-demand language reported by U.S. Employers
- 20% of Americans speak a language other than English at home
- 90% of U.S. employers look for multilingual talent
- There is a critical need for foreign language skills in customer service, sales, marketing, management, and IT
- 44 U.S. states report a shortage of language educators
- 9 out of 10 employers rely on employees with foreign language skills

**All information from Language Connects Foundation*

Program Website

washjeff.edu/spanish

W&J Spanish students during a two-week May Term travel course to Valencia, Spain (May 2023)